ENTRY RULES AND STIPULATIONS (all categories)]

1. Applicants must include an English translation of their poster title(s) on the entry form.
2. Information submitted on entry forms will be used in the IPT2024 catalogue. As a rule, we do not accept changes to this information, so please enter it carefully.
3. For Categories A and B, the entry form must be sent with the poster submission(s). For the U30+Student Category, applicants should carefully fill out the online entry form at the time of submission.
4. By entering this contest, applicants understand and agree that the IPT organizer has the right to photograph and/or reproduce images of their submissions for the IPT2024 catalogue and (non-commercial) promotional purposes of the IPT2024 exhibition. Applicants also agree that these images may be used for other museum purposes, including media reports, publicity and contest records, and may be shared via websites and other social media.
5. Posters which have been submitted to the IPT contest are not returnable. With the exception of the works selected for exhibition, the museum will dispose of the digital data submitted to the U30+Student Category approximately one year after the conclusion of the IPT2024 exhibition.
6. Category A/B applicants whose works pass the National Jury screening are kindly requested to donate these works to the permanent collection of the Toyama Prefectural Museum of Art and Design. Prize-winning U30+Student Category posters will be printed and added to the permanent collection of the Toyama Prefectural Museum of Art and Design, and U30+Student Category posters which pass the National Jury screening will be archived as a part of IPT exhibition records.
7. The organizer will not be held responsible for posters that are lost or damaged in transit, or for any loss or damage of digital data that occurs during transmission.
8. The museum will directly contact applicants whose submissions have been selected for exhibition or awarded a prize. The results of the National Jury screening will be announced in June 2024, and prize recipients will be announced in mid-October 2024.
9. In the case that a poster is believed to infringe upon the copyright of another individual or group, or if a U30+Student Category applicant is found to have misrepresented his/her age or any eligibility, the organizing committee and the organizer reserve the right to remove the poster from exhibition and retract any prize awarded even after notification has been made.
